Wightman & Associates Adds to Staff.

Benton Harbor, MI. – Tom Deneau, President, Wightman & Associates, Inc. recently announced that Peter Siglow, P.E. and Matt Sinkovitz, E.I.T. have joined the engineering staff at their Benton Harbor headquarters . Hannah Weber is interning with the architectural staff and Mike Johnson is interning with the inspector team.

Peter Siglow, P.E. joined the WAI staff as a project civil engineer. Siglow will provide road design, sanitary sewer systems, treatment plant design, storm sewer design, right-of-way plans, site design, water system design, and construction inspection. He has a B.S. in Civil Engineering and in Environmental Engineering from Michigan Technological University, Houghton, MI. Siglow is licensed in Michigan, Indiana, Georgia, Minnesota, and Missouri.

Matt Sinkovitz, a recent civil engineering graduate from Western Michigan University, is joining WAI as an E.I.T. Sinkovitz started earlier this summer as a construction inspector. During his senior year he worked on the Senior Capstone Design Project sponsored by WAI. His previous experience includes an internship with Nicholson Construction Company as a field engineer and as a co-op construction inspector for MDOT.

Hannah Weber is a summer intern working in the Architecture department as an AutoCAD designer. Weber graduated Magna Cum Laude with a B. A. degree in Architecture from Judson University, Elgin II. She is a native of Southwestern Michigan and graduated from Lakeshore High School in Stevensville, MI. She plans to attend Notre Dame in the fall.

Mike Johnson is a summer intern working in the Survey department as an inspector on various projects. Johnson holds two bachelors degrees in Construction Engineering, one from Western Michigan University and the other from Lawrence Technological University. He graduated from Battle Creek Central High School.
